

Justice for All: Training

Event: On February 16th, 2022, at 1:30 p.m., SCHAC Community Relations Division in partnership with the UofSC Center for Civil Rights History & Research, trained Sumter County community partners on conducting community dialogue sessions.

Background: Beginning in January 2022, with the support of the Williams Companies, South Carolina Humanities, and Central Carolina Community Foundation, Justice for All is traveling throughout South Carolina. Justice for All has several components: the exhibit, training community partners and community dialogues. The content focuses on the Civil Rights Movement from the 1940s-late 1960s and connects the topics to local and national events as well as their legacies in the present.

Upcoming Events:

March 3: at 6 p.m., Session 1 of the Justice for All: Connecting Communities and Civil Rights dialogue series at the Sumter County Museum

March 8: at 6 p.m., Session 2 of the Justice for All dialogue series

SCHAC Community Relations Division trains Sumter County community partners on conducting dialogue discussions