

“75th Anniversary of Liberation of Auschwitz Commemoration”

The Liberation of Auschwitz

75th COMMEMORATION

SC CIVIC COMMEMORATION
JANUARY 28, 2020
10:30 AM

“For Evil To Flourish, It Only Requires Good Men To Do Nothing”

Event: On January 28, 2020, several staff members of the SC Human Affairs Commission attended the 75th Anniversary of the Liberation of Auschwitz, which was held at University of South Carolina Alumni Center.

This event honors the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust and the millions of other victims of Nazism.

Attendees and speakers included:

Honorary Co-Chairs Governor McMaster and Lt. Governor Evette; Honorary Co-Vice Chairs Columbia Mayor Benjamin and State Superintendent of Education Molly Spearman; and keynote speaker, Elisha Wiesel, the only child of Holocaust survivor Elie Wiesel.

This event was hosted by SC Council on The Holocaust. This council operates in collaborative partnership with the state legislature and the SC Department of Education to promote awareness about the Holocaust and to honor the survivors and concentration camp liberators who call South Carolina home.