

Carolina Coastal Association of Realtors

Don Frierson, SCHAC

Event: SCHAC Housing Investigator, Don Frierson conducted a speaking engagement for the Carolina Coastal Association of Realtors in Myrtle Beach on January 23, 2020.

He spoke in response to an article in News Day Magazine relative to widespread discrimination on the part of real estate agents in Long Island New York.

He discussed the SC Fair Housing Law & discrimination in real estate. Information was provided to the audience on the Fair Housing Act and Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King's march in Cicero, Illinois. He concluded his presentation by explaining Levitt Towns. These housing communities were built by Levitt & Sons following WWII in suburban areas. Levitt Towns had restricted covenants that prohibited the homes from being sold to African Americans.
