

Orangeburg Revitalization Coalition Screening

Left to Right: Keela Gover, Natalie Able, Ellen N. Zisholtz, Emily Harrold, Rep. Justin Bamberg, and John Graves

Event: On December 20, 2021, SC Human Affairs Commission (SCHAC) Community Relations Consultants, Ayana Crawford, and Danielle Lindley, attended a screening & Panel Discussion of “The Meltdown in Dixie” hosted by the Orangeburg Revitalization Coalition. The discussion was moderated by Keela Gover and featured Orangeburg Revitalization Coalition representatives John Graves and Natalie Able, President of Center for Creative Partnerships Ellen N. Zisholtz, filmmaker Emily Harrold and state Rep. Justin Bamberg.

Background: Orangeburg Revitalization Coalition was created on June 14, 2020, in Orangeburg, SC after the events of George Floyd. This nonprofit organization was created to invigorate the city of Orangeburg by empowering and uniting the community.

For more information about the Orangeburg Revitalization Coalition, please visit:

<https://m.facebook.com/groups/1611979072284463/?fref=mentions>