

Visit to The City of Myrtle Beach's Human Rights Commission

Community Relations Division team addresses community concerns

Event: On October 21st, 2021, The City of Myrtle Beach's Human Rights Commission invited the Community Relations Division team to their October meeting. The CRD listened to issues occurring in their community and provided additional resources related to public accommodations and fair housing matters. In preparation for next month's training, the team shared the Community and Race Relations Guide with the Human Rights Commission.

The City of Myrtle Beach's Human Rights Commission aims to eliminate discriminatory practices within the city by fostering and encouraging the growth and development of the City of Myrtle Beach in a manner that will assure to all persons equal opportunity to live free of discrimination.

Upcoming Events:

- November 18th, 2021: CRD returns to the City of Myrtle Beach to conduct a CRC training with the Human Rights Commission.
