

2022 MLK Celebration Opportunity Expo

Training Consultant, Alpha Dunbar, and Community Relations Consultant, Ayana Crawford at their table for the event

Event: On Wednesday, January 19, 2022, SC Human Affairs Commission (SCHAC)'s Community Relations Consultant, Ayana Crawford, and Training Consultant, Alpha Dunbar, attended Myrtle Beach's 2022 MLK Celebration Week Opportunity Expo at Horry-Georgetown Technical College Business & Conference Center.

Background: In partnership with SC Works, Horry Georgetown Technical College, and Waccamaw Regional Council of Governments, the City of Myrtle Beach held the Opportunity Expo as their final event for Freedom Week. Freedom Week (also known as 2022 MLK Celebration week) was a week full of events to celebrate the life of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. This was the 17th annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. celebration presented by the Carolina African American Heritage Foundation.

For more information on the Carolina African American Heritage Foundation, please visit: <https://www.caahf.net/about>